My child is always very happy and he has a good day when he gets home from school.

My child does not seem to know the days of the week so he can't wait for school to open again so we can count the sleeps. It's so nice to see him so excited about school. He never has been until now.

It has become, along with home, his safe space. He trusts his teachers.

My child loves school and all the people around her at school. The support she gets is amazing.

Never have any problems with him going to school as he likes it. In general, he is a happy child.

My child is happy and settled.

Even when  is struggling he is still prepared to come into school. He speaks positively of school and enjoys his time there.

My child continues to come into school daily with a positive attitude. Throughout his time at Hillcrest, he has made trusting relationships with both staff and peers and has grown in confidence and self-esteem, as well as making progress academically. He will always have daily challenges but we are in no doubt that Hillcrest is the perfect environment for him to grow and progress.

Up every day, dressed and ready to go to school. If he is angry with us, he tells us he wants to go to school.

My child enjoys going to school. Brilliant attendance.

He is a lot happier when he comes home from school.

My child loves school, sometimes talks about what has happened and sometimes he doesn't. He says he has loads of friends and enjoys being on the school field.
